Gohrde, September 19, N. S.

HIS Majesty arrived here from Hanover on Tuesday Noon, in perfect Health.

Eyndhoven, Sept. 24, N. S. His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland arrived here this Morning in perfect Health.

Hague, Sept. 24, N. S. The Disturbances at Haerlem ended at last by a Resolution taken by the Regency, to desire the States of Holland would empower the Prince of Orange to accept of their Resignation, and to change the Magistracy of their Town, in the same Manner as he had done at Amsterdam. When this Proposal was made last Saturday to the States, the Deputies of Dort, seeing that the Regency of several other Towns would be at last obliged to come into the same Measure, moved the Assembly, that a Resolution should be taken to authorize the Prince to change the Regency not only of Haerlem, but likewise of all such other Towns as should desire it. And a Resolution was accordingly taken, giving his Highness the Power proposed. We are informed from Groningen, that Major General Rous, with five Battalions under his Command, had surprized one of the Gates of that Town, and afterwards disarm'd all the Burghers; by which Means he had put an End to all the Disturbances there. M. Van Borsellen set out on Saturday for Aix-la-Chapelle.

Whitehall, Sept. 15. 1748.

Whereas it has been represented to their Excellencies the Lords Justices, that, on the 6th of this Instant September, one Hugh Coffy was committed to Newgate, on strong Suspicion of Filing and Diminishing Portugal Gold Pieces: And as there is the strongest Reason to believe, that the said Coffy, and several others (who since the said Coffy's Commitment have absconded) have been concerned in Filing the Current Coin of this Kingdom called Guineas, and in dispersing the same: Their Excellencies are pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any of the Persons concerned with the said Coffy as aforesaid, upon his or her discovering one or more of his or her Accomplices; as likewise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward allowed by Act of Parliament, to any Person or Persons, who shall apprehend and take any Person or Persons concerned in Filing and Diminishing the said Current Coin of this Kingdom, so as he, she or they may be convicted of the same.
